महत्वपूर्ण सूचना/Important Information

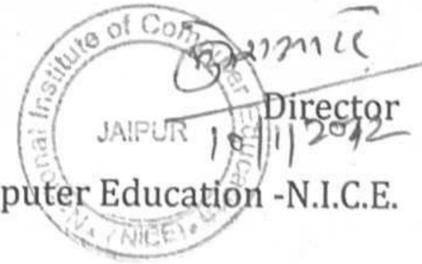

The National Institute of Computer Education (N.I.C.E.) is a leading training institution in the country, functioning as a Nodal Agency and a Centre of Excellence. The main objective of the institute is to provide quality, employment-oriented, and self-employment-focused training to unemployed youth, enabling them to become self-reliant and capable of establishing their own enterprises or securing employment in various institutions and industries.

It is hereby informed to the general public that trainees who successfully complete the training programs conducted by N.I.C.E. are awarded certificates by the institute. The purpose of these certificates is to equip participants with the necessary skills for employment and self-employment.

Admission to the training programs is entirely voluntary. Candidates are advised to take admission only after being fully satisfied with the course content, duration, fee structure, and usefulness of the program. Employment based on the certificates issued by the institute depends on the discretion of the concerned department, organization, establishment, or employer.

The above terms and conditions do not apply to training programs whose certificates are affiliated with AICTE or universities.
